105TH CONGRESS 2D SESSION

H. R. 3890

To promote democracy and good governance in Nigeria, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

May 19, 1998

Mr. Gilman (for himself and Mr. Payne) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on International Relations, and in addition to the Committees on Banking and Financial Services, and the Judiciary, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To promote democracy and good governance in Nigeria, and for other purposes.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.
- 4 This Act may be cited as the "Nigerian Democracy
- 5 and Civil Society Empowerment Act".
- 6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND DECLARATION OF POLICY.
- 7 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-
- 8 ings:

- (1) The continued rule of the Nigerian military government, in power since a 1993 coup, undermines confidence in the Nigerian economy, damages relations between Nigeria and the United States, threatens the political and economic stability of West Africa, and harms the lives of the people of Nigeria.
- (2) The transition plan announced by the Government of Nigeria on October 1, 1995, which includes a commitment to hold free and fair elections, has so far failed to foster an environment in which such elections would be considered free and fair, nor was the transition plan itself developed in a free and open manner or with the participation of the Nigerian people.
- (3) The international community would consider a free and fair election in Nigeria one that involves a genuinely independent electoral commission and an open and fair process for the registration of political parties and the fielding of candidates and an environment that allows the full unrestricted participation by all sectors of the Nigerian population.
- (4) In particular, the process of registering voters and political parties has been significantly flawed and subject to such extreme pressure by the military

- so as to guarantee the uncontested election of the incumbent or his designee to the presidency.
 - (5) The tenure of the ruling military government in Nigeria has been marked by egregious human rights abuses, devastating economic decline, and rampant corruption.
 - (6) Previous and current military regimes have turned Nigeria into a haven for international drug trafficking rings and other criminal organizations.
 - (7) On September 18, 1997, a social function in honor of then-United States Ambassador Walter Carrington was disrupted by Nigerian state security forces. This culminated a campaign of political intimidation and personal harassment against Ambassador Carrington by the ruling regime.
 - (8) Since 1993, the United States and other members of the international community have imposed limited sanctions against Nigeria in response to human rights violations and political repression.
 - (9) According to international and Nigerian human rights groups, at least several hundred democracy and human rights activists and journalists have been arbitrarily detained or imprisoned, without appropriate due process of law.

- 1 (10)(A) The widely recognized winner of the 2 annulled June 6, 1993, presidential election, Chief 3 Moshood K. O. Abiola, remains in detention on 4 charges of treason.
 - (B) General Olusegun Obassanjo (rt.), who is a former head of state and the only military leader to turn over power to a democratically elected civilian government and who has played a prominent role on the international stage as an advocate of peace and reconciliation, remains in prison serving a life sentence following a secret trial that failed to meet international standards of due process over an alleged coup plot that has never been proven to exist.
 - (C) Internationally renowned writer, Ken Saro-Wiwa, and 8 other Ogoni activists were arrested in May 1994 and executed on November 10, 1995, despite the pleas to spare their lives from around the world.
 - (D) Frank O. Kokori, Secretary General of the National Union of Petroleum and Natural Gas Workers (NUPENG), who was arrested in August 1994, and has been held incommunicado since, Chief Milton G. Dabibi, Secretary General of Staff Consultative Association of Nigeria (SESCAN) and former Secretary General of the Petroleum and Nat-

- ural Gas Senior Staff Association (PENGASSAN), who was arrested in January 1996, remains in detention without charge, for leading demonstrations against the canceled elections and against government efforts to control the labor unions.
 - (E) Among those individuals who have been detained under similar circumstances and who remain in prison are Christine Anyanwu, Editor-in-Chief and publisher of The Sunday Magazine (TSM), Kunle Ajibade and George Mbah, editor and assistant editor of the News, Ben Charles Obi, a journalist who was tried, convicted, and jailed by the infamous special military tribunal during the reason trials over the alleged 1995 coup plot, the "Ogoni 21" who were arrested on the same charges used to convict and execute the "Ogoni 9" and Dr. Beko Ransome-Kuti, a respected human rights activist and leader of the pro-democracy movement and Shehu Sani, the Vice-Chairman of the Campaign for Democracy.
 - (11) Numerous decrees issued by the military government in Nigeria suspend the constitutional protection of fundamental human rights, allow indefinite detention without charge, revoke the juris-

- diction of civilian courts, and criminalize peaceful criticism of the transition program.
- 12) As a signatory to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR), the Harare Commonwealth Declaration, and the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights, Nigeria is obligated to grant its citizens the right to fairly conduct elections that guarantee the free expression of the will of the electors.
 - (13) Nigeria has played a major role in restoring elected, civilian governments in Liberia and Sierra Leone as the leading military force within the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) peacekeeping force, yet the military regime has refused to allow the unfettered return of elected, civilian government in Nigeria.
 - (14) Despite organizing and managing the June 12, 1993, elections, the Nigerian military regime nullified that election, imprisoned the winner a year later, and continues to fail to provide a coherent explanation for their actions.
 - (15) Nigeria has used its military and economic strength to threaten the land and maritime borders and sovereignty of neighboring countries, which is

- 1 contrary to numerous international treaties to which
- 2 it is a signatory.
- 3 (b) Declaration of Policy.—Congress declares
- 4 that the United States should encourage political, eco-
- 5 nomic, and legal reforms necessary to ensure rule of law
- 6 and respect for human rights in Nigeria and support a
- 7 timely and effective transition to democratic, civilian gov-
- 8 ernment in Nigeria.

9 SEC. 3. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

- 10 (a) International Cooperation.—It is the sense
- 11 of Congress that the President should, in any and all
- 12 international fora, seek the cooperation of other countries
- 13 as part of the United States policy of isolating the military
- 14 government of Nigeria.
- 15 (b) United Nations Human Rights Commis-
- 16 SION.—It is the sense of Congress that the President
- 17 should instruct the United States Representative to the
- 18 United Nations Human Rights Commission (UNHRC) to
- 19 use the voice and vote of the United States at the annual
- 20 meeting of the Commission—
- 21 (1) to condemn human rights abuses in Nigeria;

- 23 (2) to press for the appointment of a special
- 24 rapporteur on Nigeria, as called for in Commission
- 25 Resolution 1997/53.

1	(c) Special Envoy for Nigeria.—It is the sense
2	of Congress that, because the United States Ambassador
3	to Nigeria, a resident of both Lagos and Abuja, Nigeria
4	is the President's representative to the Government of Ni-
5	geria, serves at the pleasure of the President, and was ap-
6	pointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate
7	the President should not send any other envoy to Nigeria
8	without prior notification of Congress and should not des-
9	ignate a special envoy to Nigeria without consulting Con-
10	gress.

5	viding assistance under this subsection, the Ad-
6	ministrator of the United States Agency for

8	nongovernmental organizations receiving such
9	assistance represent a broad cross-section of so-
10	ciety in Nigeria, including—
11	(i) organizations with representation
12	from various ethnic groups;
13	(ii) organizations containing journal-
14	ists, lawyers, accountants, doctors, teach-
15	ers, and other professionals;

22	promote democracy, human rights, and ac-
23	countable government.

25	RIGHTS.—Of the amounts made available for fiscal

- 3 should be available to the United States Agency for
- 4 International Development for the purpose of provid-
- 5 ing grants of not more than $25,000 each to sup-

- 8 vancement of human rights in Nigeria.
- 9 (b) USIA INFORMATION ASSISTANCE.—Of the
- 10 amounts made available for fiscal years 1999, 2000, and

- 12 for fiscal year 1999, $1,500,000 for fiscal year 2000, and
- 13 $2,000,000 for fiscal year 2001 should be made available
- 14 to the United States Information Agency for the purpose
- 15 of supporting its activities in Nigeria, including the pro-

- 17 tional democracy, the rule of law, and respect for human
- 18 rights.
- 19 (c) Staff Levels and Assignments of United
- 20 States Personnel in Nigeria.—
- 21 (1) FINDING.—Congress finds that staff levels
- at the office of the United States Agency for Inter-
- 23 national Development in Lagos, Nigeria, are inad-
- equate.

1	(2) Sense of congress.—It is the sense of
2	Congress that the Administrator of the United
3	States Agency for International Development
4	should—
5	(A) increase the number of United States
6	personnel at such Agency's office in Lagos, Ni-
7	geria, from within the current, overall staff re-
8	sources of such Agency in order for such office
9	to be sufficiently staffed to carry out subsection
10	(a); and
